SIR,

I have the honor to state that at the time when lands were acquired for forming the Malleswaram Extension 30 acres and 23 guntas of land comprising the "Ryots' Block" to the West of the Railway line were acquired for the requirements of the ryots who camped out from their houses in the old City when Plague broke out in the year 1898, and who have been living ever since in huts on occupied lands in the limits of Ketamarnahally, Hanumanthapur &c , not far from Malleswaram The necessary allotment having been sanctioned by Government lately, most of the roads and conservancy lanes have been laid out by the Sanitary Engineer. At present 281 building sites have been formed in it, of which 6 are Cottage sites and 275 are ordinary house sites Out of these 275 ordinary house sites, 7 sites are to be granted to the parties concerned, in exchange for the private lands acquired from them on account of the burial and cremation grounds and some roads and conservancy lanes, and 40 sites have been reserved for poor Brahmins, leaving a balance of 228 sites, the whole of which have been applied for

[redacted]

for by the ryots and their Jeetagars, Dhobys, Barbers and Artizans required for them and by a few ryots who came from Kunigal and Nagamangala Taluks a few years ago during the Scarcity and settled down in Bangalore as peons in various Offices and as domestic servants, and who are now living in huts in the ryots' holding of Bundireddipalya and Hanumanthapur near the Ryots' Block These applicants pray that the sites may be granted to them for the upset price of Rs 30/- which was the price originally fixed by Government for each site measuring 30' x 100' at which rate the sites to the East of the Railway line were granted to other classes of people for a number of years Their prayer is reasonable, seeing that this is the first time that the sites in the Ryots'Block are to be granted to them But in view of the fact that the value of building sites has now considerably increased, I am of opinion that each ordinary house site in the Ryots' Block may be granted at an upset price of Rs. 100/- to bonafide ryots and their Jeetagars, Dhobys, Barbers and Artizans required by them for the new settlement, and also to the said new settlers Accordingly I request the sanction of Government to the same under the exceptional clause in regard to special communities, laid down in Government Proceedings No 4285-6/Ml. 33-15-149 dated the 9th January 1917.

2. The Cottage sites will be sold by auction

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Honorary President.
